

Lee Yarlet

Lee Yarlet's years of experience as an educator, tutor, and coordinator have broadened her professional experiences to unique dimensions. With her undergraduate degree from Messiah College in Elementary Education and her graduate degree from Shippensburg University in Learning Disabilities, Lee's academic preparation offers a rich knowledge base in education.

In addition to the academic world, Lee has served both in local church ministries and international service missions. Her heart of compassion led her to initiate steps to meet goals for families and individuals.

Lee's certification with the American Association of Christian Counselors is a credential that attests to her skill set as a life coach, personal consultant and mentor.

Her life can be summarized by the words of 1 Peter 1:6-8 "In all this you greatly rejoice, though now for a little while you may have had to suffer grief in all kinds of trials. These have come so that the proven genuineness of your faith—of greater worth than gold, which perishes even though refined by fire—may result in praise, glory and honor when Jesus Christ is revealed. Though you have not seen him, you love him; and even though you do not see him now, you believe in him and are filled with an inexpressible and glorious joy, for you are receiving the end result of your faith, the salvation of your souls."

Why call?

Are you apprehensive, anxious or stuck and unable to move forward? Have you found there is “not enough” available to you? Does the day-to-day routine keep you feeling breached rather than moving? Are you staggering with the weight of decisions and responsibilities? Is the tension stretching you so you feel like it will snap?

Lee can provide assistance and coaching to help you address these puzzling dilemmas. By directing your thinking to focus on your dreams, your orientation, or your future, her sessions will enable YOU to navigate these steps for yourself. With specific strategies and encouragement, Lee will guide you to take the next steps.

Facing these dilemmas alone can be daunting, and Lee recognizes this. Call and schedule an appointment with Lee so she can offer her wisdom and compassion to you as a partner in your efforts.
